Subject: IQR Submission Requirements Interface Now Available in HQR

CMS.gov | Hospital Quality Reporting

Announcement from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS):

You can now access the new Submission Requirements interface via the Hospital Quality Reporting (HQR) System.

Here's what's new:

- View all your IQR measure submission requirements and progress in a single report interface
- Export the report as a PDF or CSV

This new consolidated interface replaces the Reporting Requirements reports.

Questions? Watch a short video about the new Submission Requirements page.

As the HQR System continues to improve, any changes will be communicated.
